

CLOSED

South Haven Memorial Library is closed until further notice.

Please visit our website, Facebook, Twitter and/or Instagram for updates. We are in the process of moving to our new renovated library.

If you have any library books, please HOLD on to books until we open at the new renovated library. During this transition there will be no fees and/or fines assessed.

We will keep our patrons and community posted on an opening date through our social media outlets.

We ask for patience during this move. Thank you!
