

Celebrate Families Book Bags

at the South Haven Memorial Library

What are Celebrate Families Book Bags? Each bag contains four books that you can read with your family, then return to the library. The bags also include take home items you get to keep for yourselves! Some items you get to keep are crayons, an "all about my family" activity sheet, healthy recipes, and more! You will get to dive into stories about families and learn how they might be different or similar to yours!

Who: For any families who have a South Haven Memorial Library card.

Why: Celebrate and explore families, reading and learning!

When: Starting September 19, you can check out the book bags.

Where: Pick up the book bags at the South Haven Memorial Library's location:

- 314 Broadway St, South Haven, MI 49090

How: To check out the bags, come into the library, or request them over the phone by calling (269) 637-2403.

